

ANDERSON COLLEGE
HANDBOOK
1914-1915

ALMA MATER

Dear to our hearts is our Alma Mater,
Loyal and true are we;
Truest devotion till life is ended,
Wholly we pledge to thee,
Tho' from thy halls far away we wander
Thoughts back to thee will fly,
And tender mem'ries time cannot sever,
Love that will never die.

Heaven's choicest blessings ever attend thee,
Dear Alma Mater mine—
No shadows harm thee, no fears alarm thee
Always the sunshine thine.
And tho' we leave thee, we'll never grieve thee,
True to our trust we'll be,
Our best endeavor, now and forever,
Always to honor thee.

—Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Sr.

THE ANDERSON COLLEGE IDEAL

A healthy Christian gentlewoman, doing her work accurately, completely, and happily.

At the beginning of the college year each student is given a copy of this Handbook, and is thereafter held responsible for knowing its contents. Extra copies are thirty-five cents each. This Handbook is the property:

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

It is our happy privilege to welcome the new members of our college family to the life that awaits you in Anderson College.

I speak on behalf of the Administrative Officers and the Trustees of Anderson College to say that this Handbook is issued by the Student Government Association with full authority as a binding contract and an honorable engagement between the institution and every one of its students. The Student Councils have been elected by popular vote to administer a government which gives to each student the greatest liberty consistent with the best interests of the entire group. But freedom is not license, and individual responsibility is necessary for the maintenance of harmonious group life. The Honor System at Anderson is designed to foster that spirit of responsibility, in preparation for the adult life just around the corner. Rules are a normal part of the civic and social life of any community; here, Student Government regulations serve merely as traffic rules, to keep the days flowing smoothly and to promote a high degree of scholarship.

One of the secrets of happy living is the determination to get from college as much as it is able to give you and to give back in cooperative effort as much as you can. No matter what disparities there may be among you in material possessions or in mental abilities, the greatest art of all is well within the reach of each student - the fine art of gracious living.

TRADITIONS

October Day is a surprise holiday granted by the President of the College when everyone can sing the October Day song.

The Crook Banquet on Hallowe'en introduces the tradition of hiding the crook. Friendly class spirit is shown in an endeavor to see which class will be the possessor of the crook at commencement.

The Christmas Season is ushered in on December first by Christmas First Night. Christmas carols are sung and played in the college dining hall during the month of December. On the Sunday evening just before the Christmas holidays the college choir presents a Yuletide Vesper Service.

Founders Day is observed February 14th. This is the date on which the charter of the college was granted by the State Department of South Carolina.

Sunshine Sister Week supplies a note of interest and piquancy during first semester examinations.

The Annual Birthday Banquet is held in the dining hall early in the second semester. Table birthday parties are held as birthdays arrive.

On the morning of May first every one finds that some unknown friend has left at her door a May Day basket. The May Day Festival is given in the campus amphitheater early in the month of May. This fete is attended by a large number of high school seniors and out-of-town visitors.

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I—Name

The name of this organization shall be the Student Government Association of Anderson College, of which there shall be two autonomous branches, to be known as the Resident Association and the Town Association.

ARTICLE II—Object

The object of this Association shall be to foster student interests and activities, to maintain a high standard of scholarship and of honor among students, to administer regulations, and to transact business pertaining to the student body.

ARTICLE III—Membership

All undergraduates of Anderson College shall become members of this Association upon matriculating and paying the annual dues of $1.00. All alumnae may be associate members having the power of discussion but no vote.

ARTICLE IV—Meetings.

Section 1. Of the Associations.

The Resident Association shall hold regular meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month. The Town Association shall hold regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month. Joint meetings of the two branches may be held on fifth Mondays, or upon request. Additional meetings of either Association may be called by the President of either branch at any time or upon the written request of ten members.

Section 2. Of the Councils

The Resident Council and the Town Council shall each hold regular meetings at stated times to carry on their executive functions, and to prepare the current business to be discussed at their respective Associations.

ARTICLE V—Executive DepartmentSection 1. Councils

The executive power of the Student Government Association shall be vested in two autonomous councils, to be known as the Resident Council and the Town Council.

Section 2. Officers.

The Resident Council shall consist of eleven officers: A President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, two House Presidents, a Fire Chief, two Representatives from the Sophomore Class, and two Representatives from the Freshman Class.

The Town Council shall consist of eight officers: A President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, two Representatives from the Sophomore Class, and two Representatives from the Freshman Class.

Section 3. Nomination and Election.

All nominees for Student Government offices shall be CollegiAnnes. All nominations shall be made by a Nominating Committee and approved by the Faculty Executive Committee. The Nominating Committee, of which the President of one Association shall be the chairman and the President of the other Association shall be the vice-chairman, shall consist of one representative chosen by each of the following organizations: the Resident Council, the Town Council, the Baptist Student Union, the Yodler staff, the Columns staff, the Women's Athletic Association, the Sophomore Class, and the Freshman Class, with the Dean of the Faculty and the Dean of Women as advisers. Each member shall confer with the officers and the sponsor of her organization to obtain their recommendations for nominees. The Nominating Committee shall meet early in the fourth quarter of the school year; the election shall take place one week later, the names of the nominees having been posted throughout that week. Students shall register by signing their names, and shall vote by secret ballot at a place designated by the Councils. The members of the two Councils shall be inaugurated as promptly as possible thereafter. In the case of the Freshman Representatives, two shall during the first week of the second semester be elected by each Council, from six nominations for each chosen by their respective Associations. These Representatives shall serve until the annual election, when they may be elected to other offices, failing which they shall remain as Representatives. Vacancies occurring on either Council shall be filled by appointment of the Faculty Executive Committee.

Section 4. Duties of Officers.

1. The president shall preside over all meetings of her branch of the Association and Council; shall call any meeting which she may consider necessary; shall make all appointments needed for the administrative functions of the Councils and the CollegiAnnes; shall summon before the Council as need arises any member of her Association.

2. The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence of or at the request of the President; the Resident Vice-President shall be in charge of all arrangements for the chaperonage of restricted or campused students; the two Vice-Presidents shall serve as co-chairmen of the Social Standards Board.
3. The Secretary shall preserve all the records of her branch of the Association; shall keep a list of the members of the Association; shall prepare and read the minutes of the Association; shall post or announce to the student body all penalties for offenses; shall notify the Administration of restrictions which are to be communicated to parents.
4. The Treasurer shall have charge of all the funds of her branch of the Association; shall keep a record of receipts and expenditures and present it to the Association at the session preceding the inauguration of the newly elected Councils; the Resident Treasurer shall keep a record of the Student Emergency Loan Fund.
5. The House Presidents shall at each meeting of the Association appoint Proctors to serve until the next meeting, shall instruct them in their duties, shall see that they perform these duties and assist them when necessary; shall attend to the ringing of bells for study hour, recreation, lights, Sunday school, and quiet hour; shall keep a record of church cuts and excuses; shall summon before them, at their discretion, any member of the House over which they preside.
6. The Fire Chief shall be in charge of a system of fire drills to minimize the danger of fire, at least one drill being held in each quarter with all students required to participate; she shall appoint Captains and Lieutenants to assist her in this work, shall instruct them, and shall receive their reports at each drill; she shall inform the Dean of Women of the time scheduled for each fire drill; she shall report to the Student Government Association any misdemeanors occurring during fire drills.

7. Each Representative shall perform the duties assigned to her by her Council.

ARTICLE VI—Administrative Department

The administrative power shall be vested in the Councils, the Collegiannes, the Proctors, the Marshals, and the Social Standards Board.

ARTICLE VII—Legislative Department

The legislative power shall be vested in the Student Government Association as a whole, subject to the Faculty Executive Committee.

Amendments to the Constitution may be proposed by the Councils, or in writing by ten members of the Association, with the approval of the Faculty Executive Committee. An amendment shall be presented to the Association for consideration two weeks before it is to be voted upon, and shall require a two-thirds vote of the membership for its adoption.

ARTICLE VIII—Judicial Department

The judicial power shall be vested in a Joint Council composed of the Faculty Executive Committee and either student Council, or, in a matter touching the entire student body, in a Tri-Council composed of the Faculty Executive Committee, the Resident Council, and the Town Council.

ARTICLE IX—Honor System and Honor Society

Section 1. CollegiAnnes

The self-governing members of the Student Government Association who are bound by the Honor System shall be called CollegiAnnes. They shall be appointed by the Joint Council of each Association at the end of each Quarter, except that Freshmen shall first be appointed at mid-year; they shall be inducted at a joint Association meeting. The qualifications for membership shall be: 1. Socially approved conduct; 2. A spirit of willingness to serve; 3. Adequacy of scholarship, being the grade required at graduation for recommendation; 4. Willingness to take and to live by the pledge of self-government.

Section 2. The Denmark Society

At mid-year, those Sophomores who have lived honorably, who have contributed much to their school community, and who have maintained excellent scholastic records shall be elected by the Faculty Executive Committee to membership in the Denmark Society; they shall be known as Danes.

ARTICLE X—Faculty Executive Committee

The Faculty Executive Committee shall consist of the President of the College, the Dean of the Faculty, the Dean of Women, and two other members appointed by the President of the College. All rules, regulations, and decisions of the Councils and of the Association shall be subject to the approval of this Committee.

BY-LAWS

I. Administrative Functions of Council Members

One or more members of the Resident Council, appointed by the President of the Resident Association, shall each week-end be in charge of the reception of guests, to serve with the Dean's staff, to supervise the CollegiAnnes who are on duty, and to ring the bells for the close of receiving hours.

II. CollegiAnnes

The students who are bound by the Honor System at Anderson College are called CollegiAnnes; they have greater responsibilities than the students under Student Government regulations only, and also additional prerogatives, as detailed in Class Privileges. CollegiAnnes at their induction sign a pledge of self-government, and keep the signed card upon their doors as a constant reminder of their responsibilities. The pledge is as follows:

In recognition of the trust which has been placed in me as a CollegiAnne, I promise to strive to keep constantly in mind the Anderson College Ideal as an expression of the spirit of the college; to endeavor to uphold truth, honor, and service as positive virtues in my character; and to make student government true self-government.

Each CollegiAnne is bound by honor not only to keep the college regulations herself, but also to maintain the college standards at a high ethical level. The etiquette of reporting a failure to maintain standards on the part of a classmate is as follows. There are two methods which a CollegiAnne may pursue: 1. requesting another CollegiAnne to accompany her, she may go to the suspected student and ask her to report herself, giving warning that if this is not done, the two CollegiAnnes will turn in the report; or 2. she may report the offense directly to a member of the suspected student's Council, signifying her own readiness to appear as a witness at the Student Government investigation. No anonymous reports will ever be received or acted upon: CollegiAnnes are required to act openly and to serve as witnesses. The types of offenses to be reported will in general fall into the following categories: 1. Cheating on the preparation of assignments or on tests; 2. Stealing; 3. Lying in an official investigation or statement, such as an absence blank; 4. Breaking chaperonage rules, on or off the campus in the city of Anderson; 5. Leaving the campus without signing out; 6. Signing the register falsely; 7. Smoking without permission; 8. Drinking alcoholic beverages; 9. Damaging property; 10. Visiting during study hours. Failure to report an offense is itself an offense, and may entail suspension or expulsion from the CollegiAnnes, according to the seriousness of the incident. A CollegiAnne who fails to maintain the qualifications for membership, as detailed in Article IX of the Constitution, will likewise be subject to suspension or expulsion from the CollegiAnnes.

Two or more CollegiAnnes, appointed by the President of the Resident Association, shall each week-end serve as receptionists; they shall be instructed and supervised by a member of the Resident Council. Sophomore CollegiAnnes who manifest the requisite qualities will be given a special course of training and will be asked to share with the Council members the duties of student chaperonage.

III. Proctors

The duties of the Proctors shall be:

1. To maintain order in their sections at all times.
2. To inspect within five minutes of the ringing of study hour and light bells and to give penalty points to those students who do not obey the regulations.
3. To make a daily written report to their House President of penalty points given, or of good order within their sections.

Any proctor who is absent from her section for any length of time or who is unable for any reason to perform her duties shall secure a substitute and shall report the name of the latter to her House President. Failure to report a misdemeanor is itself a misdemeanor, to be punished by the House President with the penalty for the unreported offense.

IV. Marshals

There shall be two Sophomore Marshals and two Freshman Marshals, one of whom in each class shall be a resident student and the other a town student, to be elected by their respective Student Government Associations at the beginning of the school year.

The duties of the Marshals shall be:

1. To keep a record of attendance at Student Government Association meetings, and at entertainments at which attendance is required.

2. To report to their respective Councils any absences or any misconduct at such meetings.
3. To serve as ushers when needed.

V. Social Standards Board

There shall be a Social Standards Board of six members, of which the Vice-Presidents of the Resident Association and of the Town Association shall be co-chairmen, the one presiding whose fellow Association member is before the Board for instruction. The other members of the Board shall be the two House Presidents of the Resident Association, and two town students appointed by the Town Council.

The duties of the Board shall be:

1. To instruct in the social standards maintained at the college any student who has been reported to the Board for failure in conduct.
2. To report to the proper student Council for disciplinary action any student who, after adequate training, is persistent in misconduct.

GENERAL REGULATIONS

Absences from the College

1. The permission of the Dean of Women is required for all absences from the college other than those specified under Class Privileges. If a student fails to return to the college at the time she is expected, she is required promptly to notify the Dean of Women. If absence from the college involves also absence from one or more classes, the student is in addition required before she leaves the college to obtain the permission of the Dean of the Faculty; in the case of failure to return on time, she is required to have her parents explain the reason for her absence from classes by letter to the Dean of the Faculty. There are two departments in which the student's absence needs to be accounted for, but the parents may write one letter instead of two, if they wish, addressing either Dean and requesting her to notify the other.
2. For the instructors' records, the student must file an absence blank in the place designated by the Dean of the Faculty on the first day of her return to classes following the absence. If the instructor receives no report on the absence by the time the student returns to class for the second time after the absence, it is marked unexcused.
3. An unexcused absence on the day before or after a holiday or on the day of a previously announced test shall count double. Unexcused absences not only carry a reduction in quality points, but in accordance with Student Government regulations inflict two major points for each absence.
4. Students may not miss class work or private lessons or change them from one day to another, in order to make visits.

5. Students shall be in class and chapel not later than five minutes after the ringing of the bell. Three unexcused tardies count as one unexcused absence.

Activities

1. All student activities are under the direction of the Faculty Activities Committee and the Student Social Committee. An activities calendar is kept by the Dean of Women, who is the chairman of the Faculty Activities Committee. Regular meetings of the various organizations and all entertainments and social events shall be registered on this calendar after consultation with the chairman of the Faculty Committee. Evening entertainments shall be scheduled for Friday or Saturday evenings whenever it is possible to do so.
2. Rehearsals or preparations which interrupt the evening study hour will be allowed only on the evening preceding the event, unless special permission is secured from the Dean of Women. A student who is not making a passing grade may not take part in any entertainment which requires extensive preparation. A student excused from classes in the forenoon because of illness may not exercise social privileges during the afternoon or evening.

Automobile Riding

The conditions under which a college may permit students to ride in private cars must necessarily differ from those under which parents may with a greater degree of safety sanction this activity. We quote from the handbook of Stephens College: "Stephens as an institution is not in a position to assume responsibility for each student to ride in cars. As there are certain physical and social risks involved, it is impossible for the students to have the freedom which they are allowed to have at home, where the parents know not only the people with whom they ride but also the community and places where they visit."

Anderson College students may ride in private cars only under the conditions outlined below:

1. With parents or immediate relatives.
2. With members of the faculty, staff, or trustees of the college.
3. With parents of roommate, of suitemates, or of other students, or with "Town Mother," provided that a general permission from their parents is on file in the office of the Dean of Women.
4. With women acquaintances to and from town, provided that their parents have indicated their approval of this on the general permission blank on file in the Dean's office.
5. Sophomore CollegiAnnes may ride unchaperoned with an escort to and from a destination only, provided that their parents have indicated their approval of the specific man on a special CollegiAnne permission blank, and that the Dean of Women has approved the plans filed by the student.
6. Students may secure special permission from the Dean of Women for any reasonable request not covered by the regulations given above.
7. Because of the social risk involved, students may leave the college in a taxi only with the knowledge and consent of the Dean of Women.

Church

Students attend in Anderson the church and Sunday school of their choice. Those excused for illness shall remain in the infirmary until 5:00 P. M. Two cuts a semester are allowed from church and Sunday school: cuts left over from the first semester may be used the second semester. All cuts and excuses shall be reported to the House President before the Sunday school hour; otherwise cuts are unexcused.

Dancing

With permission from their parents students may attend socials at the U. S. O. or at Clemson; parents in granting this permission accept all responsibility, which includes the means of transportation. When dancing is included, only those students may dance whose parents have signified their approval on the general permission blank on file in the office of the Dean of Women.

Dining Hall

Students shall be in the dining hall for lunch and dinner unless excused. Breakfast is optional. Five minutes are allowed for getting to the dining hall.

Drinking

The drinking of alcoholic beverages is not permitted; it is an expulsion offense.

Dormitory Regulations

General Order

The student is responsible for complying with the room regulations posted in each suite.

Permission must be obtained from the matron for moving furniture from one room to another.

A student should not enter another girl's room when she is out.

Shades must be drawn at night when lights are turned on.

Laundry is sent out and paid for by the student, who is to comply with the regulations given by the matron.

Valuables and Lost Articles

The college is not responsible for money and valuables left in rooms; they should be placed in the college bank or vault. Lost articles should be advertised on the bulletin board; articles found in or near the college buildings should be taken to the office of the Dean of Women.

Roommates

One should not form too hasty a judgment of one's roommate; her first impression may be disappointing, too. Early in the school year a "moving day" is appointed for those who wish to room with friends whom they have made; it is wise to wait for that day, and to use the time to get acquainted with many class mates. Neither a borrower nor a lender be!

Clothing

Students must dress on special occasions in accordance with the regulations given by the Dean of Women. A white dress will be needed for use on various occasions. "Undress" garments such as house coats and bed-room shoes may not be worn off the dormitory hall except when going to the canteen during recreation hour in the evening; they may not be worn when receiving orders from the filling stations. Curlers and hair nets may be worn off the dormitory halls only when drying hair in the back court and on Friday afternoons by the fire in the colonnade; kerchiefs or turbans may not be worn to chapel, classes, or meals. Dressing should be finished before leaving one's room.

Radios

Radios may be played at any time between rising and light bells outside of school and study hours, and also from 2:00 to 4:00 P. M., including quiet hour on Sunday, provided that they are kept low enough not to disturb people outside of the room. A fee of $2.00 a semester must be paid to the college before the installation of a radio. Radios must be turned off when leaving the room.

Illness

All cases of illness should be reported immediately to the nurse. A student should never serve meals to sick students; the nurse will do this. All appointments with dentists and other specialists in Anderson must be made through the nurse.

Damage

Damage to furniture or walls must be paid for by the students who occupy the room. Students should not drive nails into the walls, write on them with fingernail polish, or otherwise mar them. The electric current in the dormitory rooms is not adapted for cooking or ironing - this must be done in the rooms provided for such activities. Any repairs which are needed should be reported promptly to the infirmary office.

Fire Drills

Every member of the student body shall take part in fire drills, under the direction of the Student Government Association, to minimize the danger of fire. To avoid confusion and to make it possible to hear the orders of the officers there must be neither running nor talking. Failure to obey this rule shall be reported to the Fire Chief at once, and by her to the student Council, for punishment as a misdemeanor.

On the summons of the bell, each girl shall close the windows of her room, leave the door open and the light on, and carry a towel. She shall go down the stairs designated as the exit for the particular portion of the building in which she is, and shall report her name to the Lieutenant of that corridor. The Captains and Lieutenants are held responsible for seeing that all students get out in orderly fashion. The names of those missing from, or added to, the roll call shall be given to the Fire Chief as soon as possible. Any one who has missed roll call must report immediately to the Fire Chief.

When fire drills are called during class time, students shall leave the buildings by exits designated by the Fire Chief for the particular portion of the building in which they are. No roll will be called; it shall be the duty of the Fire Chief and her officers to ascertain that the buildings have been emptied.

Guests

Guests may be entertained, with permission from the Dean of Women, on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, at the following rates: 50 cents for each overnight guest, 25 cents for breakfast, 35 cents for lunch, 45 cents for dinner, and 60 cents for Sunday or Guest Night dinners. Calling hours begin on Sunday at 4:00 P. M.; parents who live at a distance may see their daughters in the parlors before 4:00 P. M., but no callers may be taken during quiet hour to the dormitory halls. Students are requested not to take fathers or brothers to the dormitories except to carry luggage.

Off-Campus Regulations

Students are under Student Government regulations from the time of their arrival in the city of Anderson to the time of their leaving the city. They must report immediately to the college upon arriving in the city after week-end visits or vacations; this may be done by a telephone call to the Dean of Women if they wish to do reasonable errands before returning to the campus. They are expected upon every occasion in town to conduct themselves in accordance with the standards maintained at the college. When calling or making week-end visits in town, they must comply with the college chaperonage rules; any exceptions to this may be made only with the knowledge and consent both of the student's parents and of the Dean of Women, as well as of the hostess in town.

Permissions

All permissions for and invitations to students shall be mailed directly to the Dean of Women. Week-end permissions and invitations should reach her not later than Friday. Students who wish to spend the week-end at home must sign the Dean's week-end register by Thursday, in order that she may notify their parents to expect them. The permission of parents, to be filed in the Dean's office at the beginning of the school year on a general permission blank, is necessary for the following activities:

1. To spend week-ends at home. (For overnight visits at places other than home special permission from parents is required on each occasion, unless arrangement is made with the Dean of Women in particular cases.)
2. To ride in private automobiles.
3. To accept invitations from parents of roommates or of other students, from "Town Mothers", or from friends in town.
4. To attend football games on other campuses.
5. To attend socials and parties at the U. S. O. or at Clemson.
6. To dance at such parties.

An additional general permission blank will be sent to the parents of Sophomore CollegiAnnes, to file in the Dean's office the parents' consent to or disapproval of the Sophomore CollegiAnne privilege of leaving the college on a date unchaperoned, and to record the names of the men who have their approval as escorts when the date involves riding to and from a destination in a private car.

Post Office

Students should not give their college Post Office box number to correspondents, as this causes confusion with the city Post Office boxes. At mail delivery times they must not block the passage through West Colonnade; they should take their mail to less congested places before opening it to read. They must keep their voices quiet enough not to disturb people in the Dean's office or in the West Dormitory. Only those students who are appointed to do so may sort or put up mail; other students are requested not to enter the Post Office.

Signing Out

Students shall sign out upon the student register before leaving the campus and check off immediately upon returning. They shall at the same time make note upon the dietitian's list of any meals which they intend to miss, in order to avoid waste.

Smoking

Only those students may smoke whose parents send a written permission to the Dean of Women. A student may not smoke outside of her room or in public places in town.

Study Hours

All students shall observe closed study hours from 7:00 to 9:00 P. M., and from 9:30 to 11:00 P. M.; on evenings of required entertainments, the study hours shall be from 7:00 P. M. until time for the entertainment, and from the close of the entertainment until 11:30 P. M. This means that students will study in their own suites, in the library, or in designated study or practice rooms. There must be no visiting during these hours; consultations concerning assignments or subjects may be made during the recreation period from 9:00 to 9:30 P. M. Students who are going out in the evening must study during the afternoon; they will be furnished with Study and Busy signs to be used when they do not wish to be disturbed. Quiet shall be observed on the halls and the campus during study hours, class hours, quiet hour on Sunday, and from light to rising bells.

CLASS PRIVILEGES

Freshmen

1. Two Afternoons

Students may have two afternoons from 2:00 to 6:00 each week for shopping, calling, bowling, or attending the movies in groups of two or more, provided that no college duties are missed.

2. Walking Limits

On other afternoons after their last class they may walk within Walking Limits, which are the streets and roads within a half-mile radius of the college.

3. Late Leave

Students who have college work until 4:00 P. M. may substitute Late Leave for an afternoon from 2:00 to 6:00, returning to the college not later than 7:00 P. M., provided that they notify the dietitian in advance. Those who are careless about signing the dietitian's list when signing out will forfeit the privilege of Late Leave.

4. Week-ends

Students whose academic average does not fall below C may, with the approval of their parents indicated on the General Permission blank, spend every week-end at home, provided that they sign the week-end register of the Dean of Women by Thursday, in order that she may notify their parents to expect them. If they wish to make out of town week-end visits at places other than their own homes, they must comply with the conditions detailed in General Regulations under Off-Campus Regulations and Permissions. Week-end visits to friends in town are limited to two a month, under the conditions noted for out of town visits. Students who have service scholarships are limited in their week-end visiting by the requirements of their scholarship. Week-end privileges will be forfeited by failure to comply with regulations, or will be curtailed if the student at any time is doing unsatisfactory academic work.

5. Long Week-end

Students may have one long week-end a semester, from the close of their last class on Friday morning until Monday morning.

6. Dating

They may receive young men on the upper campus and in the college parlors on Saturday and Sunday afternoons, and in the college parlors during these evenings, but shall not hold conversation with them elsewhere. Students are requested not to allow their callers to smoke in the halls and parlors. The permission of the Dean of Women and a faculty chaperon are in general necessary when leaving the campus with young men. Evening receiving hours close at 10:30 P. M.

7. Saturday Evenings

Groups of not fewer than four students chaperoned by a Council Member or a Sophomore Collegian may go to the movies on Saturday evening. Those students who have permission from home to go to the Service Center may do so in chaperoned parties arranged by the Dean of Women.

9. Filling Station

Students may go to the Boulevard filling stations from 9:00 A. M. to 7:00 P. M. This privilege will be withdrawn at any time from a student who abuses it.

9. Spending Night in Other Suites

They may visit other students on week-end and holiday nights by signing in the House President's Spend-the-Night Book.

10. Telephone

They may use the telephone during the afternoon and during recreation periods, but not during study and quiet hours or meal times. Permission must be obtained from the Dean of Women for the sending of telegrams and long-distance calls; such calls are to be made over the pay telephone.

Sophomores

Privileges are cumulative: students in each classification receive the privileges of the preceding groups, in addition to the special privileges of their own group.

1. Sophomores may have three afternoons for shopping, calling, bowling, or attending the movies in groups of two or more.
2. Those whose average grade for the previous semester is C or above and who have not failed in any subject may substitute one evening at the movies for an afternoon, in groups of three or more chaperoned by a Council Member or a Sophomore CollegiAnne. They may not spend in town an evening on which college entertainments are scheduled. This privilege will be withdrawn if the student at any time is doing unsatisfactory work.

CLASS PRIVILEGESFreshman CollegiAnnes

1. They may have Sophomore privileges.
2. Those whose average grade for the previous semester is B or above and who have not failed in any subject:
 - a. May shop at their convenience before 6 P. M., provided that no college duties are neglected.
 - b. May have one extra long week-end each semester.

Sophomore CollegiAnnes

1. They may use the telephone at their convenience except during study and quiet hours, during which times they may receive in-coming calls but may not make out-going calls.
2. They may cut meals or have meals in town at approved restaurants, provided that they notify the dietitian in advance. Any student who is careless about signing the dietitian's list when signing out will forfeit the privilege of meal cuts.
3. They may leave the college on a date unchaperoned on Saturday or Sunday under the following conditions:
 - a. A written permission from their parents must be on file in the office of the Dean of Women.
 - b. The student must file a Dating Permission blank in the Dean's office half an hour before the close of the last office hour preceding the date, and must comply with any changes or conditions made by the Dean. Arrangements must be made in advance - last minute requests will entail forfeiture of the privilege:

students should explain to friends the conditions under which they may leave the college on a date unchaperoned.

- c. Escorts are to be instructed to meet the student in Administration Building and are to be presented to the faculty member of the Dean's staff on duty.
- d. The student must comply scrupulously with the transportation regulations detailed in General Regulations under Automobile Riding.

Failure to carry out these conditions will entail loss of the privilege.

Council Members

- 1. They may shop at their convenience.
- 2. They may keep their lights on at night until twelve o'clock.
- 3. They may have dates in the East and West Dens.
- 4. They may attend social functions or entertainments in town, but must secure the Dean's approval and must conform to any conditions which she requires.
- 5. They may leave the college on a date unchaperoned one afternoon or evening during the week, under the conditions outlined for Sophomore Collegiannes.

In the event that duties and privileges conflict, it is required that duties be given priority.

SYSTEM OF PENALTY POINTS

When penalties are not prescribed by Student Government regulations, the student Councils shall impose such penalties for unsocial conduct as, in their judgment, are to the best interest of the college and the student concerned.

Three minor points equal one major point, and three major points in any two-week period automatically entail being campused for a period of two weeks. Restriction shall be imposed for more serious offenses or for continued offenses.

All points shall be posted on the Student Government bulletin board; all penalties accruing therefrom shall be announced to the student body. Notice of restriction and the reason therefor shall be given to the administration for the notification of parents.

A campused student may not use the telephone, have dates, be on the front campus or in the main halls during receiving hours, attend social gatherings, or be present at entertainments except those required by the administration. When she does attend required entertainments, she must be chaperoned by a Council Member or a Sophomore CollegiAnne. She may not leave the campus except to attend church, when also she must be chaperoned. All requests for chaperonage must be made through the Vice-President of the Resident Association.

A restricted student may not exercise any of the above privileges and in addition forfeits for the remainder of the school year the privilege of holding office or of representing the college in any public capacity.

Violation of any penalty shall extend it one week.

Minor Penalty Points

One given for being late to meals.

Two given for meal cuts.

Major Penalty Points

One given for:

1. Noise during school, study, or quiet hours.
2. Failure to sign out in register when leaving the campus or to sign in upon returning.
3. Failure to sign up in the House President's spend-the-night book.
4. Breaking study sign without permission from the House President.
5. Failure to conform to the instructions given by the Dean of Women as to dress.
6. Untidy suite.
7. Failure to get or to pay for laundry on time.

Two given for:

1. Each unexcused absence from chapel, class, practice, or Student Government Association meeting.
2. Visiting during study hour or out of room without permission.
3. Lights on after light bell.
4. Out of room after light bell.

5. Returning late to the campus at 6:00, 7:00, or 10:30 P. M.
6. Going to town more than the allotted number of times.
7. Unsatisfactory self-help work. Restriction or forfeiture of service scholarships will be imposed at the discretion of the College administrative officers for continued failure to meet requirements of the scholarship.

Three given for:

1. Failure to conform to regulations about automobile riding.
2. Unexcused absence from church, Sunday school, or required entertainment.

Restriction

- Four weeks restriction shall automatically be imposed for lying in an official investigation or statement; for signing the register falsely, either as to time or destination; for forgery of names to permissions or invitations.

SOCIAL STANDARDS

All training in social relationships at Anderson College is directed toward the cultivation of dignity, courtesy, and consideration for others.

In Public

General Decorum

Anderson College students are expected to behave in public like gentlewomen. They ought never to attract unfavorable notice because of loud laughter or talking, undignified physical positions, or lack of good grooming. They should give their seats in trains or buses to elderly people, and should address salespeople courteously. They should never make acquaintance with men to whom they have not been introduced in a socially acceptable manner. They should try to avoid making late entrances at church or at other large gatherings, but if forced to do so, they should cause as little disturbance as possible; nor should they leave before the end of the program. They should not whisper at the movies to the disturbance of their neighbors. They should not drop paper or other debris upon the streets or upon floors. They should never chew gum in public, nor rearrange their hair or apply cosmetics. As students, they have the added responsibility of representing in public their Alma Mater as well as their home training.

Invitations

Every invitation which contains an "R.S.V.P." or which involves a meal must be answered promptly in order that the hostess may make necessary arrangements. Notes of thanks should be written after an over-night visit; they should be prompt but may be brief.

Smoking

An Anderson College student is expected when visiting to conform to the college regulations concerning smoking. If she has her parents' permission to smoke, she should do so only in her bedroom, unless her hostess smokes and invites her to do so. She should not smoke in public places.

On the Campus

On the Grounds

Students gladly assume the responsibility of assisting strangers on the campus to find places or people. They show a cheerful spirit of willingness to serve administrative officers, members of the Faculty, or other students, as the need arises. The campus grounds are for the use and enjoyment of all, hence individuals must take care not to drop papers or other debris, a habit which indicates poor training in citizenship.

In the Halls

The halls must at all times be kept reasonably quiet, lest people in classrooms or offices be disturbed. This is especially true of the entrance to Administration Building, where students are inclined to loiter to the disturbance of people in the administrative offices, the college bank, and the office of the Dean of the Faculty. Students greeting each other in passing, walking together conversing, or stopping in groups to talk must remember this and keep their voices quietly modulated, their laughter low-pitched. They should be careful not to block a passage when standing talking, and of course should never push: a polite word will serve better. They should not leave their books on the stairs near the auditorium when going to chapel, as this may cause an accident. When passing through doorways students courteously step aside to allow members of the Faculty or staff to precede them. Students who are seated always rise to show their respect for President Denmark.

At the Post Office

Since the Post Office is always congested at mail times, students should be on the alert not to block the passage through West Colonnade. It is bad manners to make people walk around one in a hall while one is engrossed in reading a letter; or to read it aloud noisily; or to drop bits of envelopes or advertisements on the floor.

In Chapel

People are often judged by their behaviour in public. One would hesitate to recommend a student who chewed gum in chapel, who whispered, read letters, or studied while a speaker was addressing the student body, or who slid down on his back-bone with his head on the back of his seat. Dignified behaviour and an attentive attitude, on the other hand, give a good general impression of a student.

In the Classrooms

College students ought not to need to be kept in order in classrooms - they should expect to give courteous attention. . All conversation should cease at once upon the entry of the instructor. The chewing of gum in classes, as in all public places, is of course bad-form. So too, is the shaking of ink upon the floor to make a fountain pen flow, a slovenly act which necessitates the scrubbing of the floor to make the room presentable for orderly people. It is a mark of courtesy to ask the instructor's permission before bringing a visitor to class, and visitors ought to be presented to the instructor at the beginning of the period. All papers to be handed

It should be typewritten or written in ink, as neatly and legibly as possible; it is an act of discourtesy to the instructor to expect him to spend extra time over illegible writing. It is not easy to ventilate classrooms to suit the comfort of a group of people; a student ought never to raise or lower windows to suit his individual comfort, but should instead wear more clothing, ask to change his seat temporarily, or let the instructor know that he is in discomfort. A willing spirit of service on the part of the students, manifesting itself in such acts as erasing the blackboards or closing the windows at the end of a period, is appreciated by the instructor.

In the Dormitories

The dormitories are places primarily for sleep, study, rest, and quiet relaxation. Banging doors, loud voices, or running feet are certain to disturb other people - somebody behind a closed door may at any time of the day be resting, writing letters, trying to concentrate, or suffering with a headache. Hence it is a Student Government regulation that noise is prohibited in the dormitories at all times; students wishing to "let off steam" by shouting or running may do so indoors in the gymnasium or out of doors on the athletic field. The banging of doors, however, is ill bred at any time or place; further, it damages the walls by causing the plaster to crack and fall. Loud knocking on doors, too, is not considered good manners; knock only loudly enough to be heard, not to startle the person within the room. The furniture and equipment in one's suite should be treated as in one's own home. Students who find it necessary to go to the infirmary during the night or who return from an entertainment after light bell should remember that others are sleeping and should be unusually quiet not to disturb them. Likewise those who wish to get up before the rising bell should take care not to awaken other people by their movements in their rooms, their bathrooms, or in the halls.

In the Dining Hall

When entering or leaving the dining hall, students stand aside to allow members of the Faculty or staff to precede. The latter serve as hostesses at the table, to direct the conversation and the serving; in the absence of the hostess, her duties are assumed by the ranking student at the table in the following order: Council member, Dane, Sophomore CollegiAnne, Freshman CollegiAnne. All food is passed first to the hostess; it is not permissible to begin eating before she does. Conversation at the table should be general; private conversations at small tables are not good form.

Office Hours

All administrative officers and members of the Faculty should be consulted only in their office or class hours. This often involves looking ahead when permissions are needed from the Dean of Women.

Appointments

Appointments with members of the Faculty should be kept promptly, as should all appointments. If it becomes impossible to keep an appointment, the instructor should be notified at once.

On Dates

Girls brought up in families with a background of culture do not allow men to take personal liberties with them: "petting" and "necking" are definitely bad form. Students are responsible for the conduct of the men whom they entertain at the college.

COLLEGE ORGANIZATION AND CLUBS

CollegiAnnes

The CollegiAnnes are the self-governing members of the Student Government Association. Their appointment and requirements for membership are detailed in Article IX of the Constitution, their functions in Section II of the By-Laws, and their prerogatives in Class Privileges.

The Denmark Society

The Denmark Society is the honor society of Anderson College. Membership is limited to Sophomores of outstanding character and achievement; the qualifications are detailed in Article IX of the Constitution. The members are known as Danes.

The Baptist Student Union

It is through the Baptist Student Union that the religious activities on the campus are correlated. Its purpose is the promotion of the spiritual lives of the students. Every one is given opportunity for active Christian service. The Union endeavors to enlist students in the church service, the Sunday school, the Baptist Training Union, and the Young Woman's Auxiliary.

The Women's Athletic Association

The W. A. A. sponsors tournaments and games in hockey, soccer, volleyball, basket ball, baseball, ping pong, badminton, track, tennis, ring tennis, table tennis, horseshoes, shuffleboard, hockey golf, and archery. Its social calendar includes supper hikes, parties, tumbling, and acrobatic exhibitions. Letters are awarded to students winning the necessary number of points.

The Yodler

The Yodler is the campus newspaper, published monthly or more frequently, by the students of Anderson College. Writing for the publication affords opportunity for experience to those who are interested in journalism. Every student receives the newspaper, the subscription being included in the student activities fee.

The Columns

The Columns is the Year Book published by the students of Anderson College. It attempts to make a record of the varied student interests.

Phi Theta Kappa

In 1932 the Anderson College chapter, Beta Pi, was granted a national charter by the Grand Council of the Phi Theta Kappa. This Junior College honor scholarship society, corresponding to Phi Beta Kappa for four-year colleges, has chapters in numerous accredited Junior Colleges throughout the United States. A student to be eligible must be within the scholastic upper ten per cent of the students enrolled in the collegiate department.

Beta Mu Kappa

Beta Mu Kappa is an honorary science fraternity open to students who make an A grade in science and a B average in all their work. Monthly meetings are given to discussions and experiments of scientific interest.

Alpha Pi Epsilon

Alpha Pi Epsilon is the national honorary secretarial society for colleges. Its chief purpose is to professionalize the status of the college trained secretary. The society stresses superior achievement in stenography and stimulates a salutary interest in the field by bringing together outstanding students in secretarial subjects. It encourages its members to carry high ideals into business relations. The Sigma Chapter organized at Anderson College in May 1941 is the only chapter of this national organization in South Carolina.

The Commercial Club

The Commercial Club is composed of students registered in the Commercial Department. Its purpose is to promote the welfare of the members and of the department.

The International Relations Club

The International Relations Club of Anderson College is a charter member of the Southern Association and regularly sends representatives to its meetings. The membership is made up of students who are specially interested in history and international relations.

J. H. A.

The Junior Homemakers Association, known as the J. H. A., is a state organization of girls and other individuals interested in home economics, sponsored by the Home Economics Division of the State Department of Education. The organization gives girls an excellent opportunity to develop group leadership and fellowship.

The Drama Club

The Drama Club is open to students interested in this type of work. The members, under a trained director, receive training in acting and in the staging of plays. Bi-monthly meetings are held and public performances are given.

The College Choir

The College Choir, open to students who are interested in choral and ensemble work, receives excellent training from the Head of the Voice Department. The Choir is much in demand for programs in the city and surrounding country.

The Cosmopolitan Club

The Cosmopolitan Club is a social club composed of students who live in states other than South Carolina.

The Hobby Club

The Hobby Club is an informal organization made up of students who are interested in exchanging "hobby ideas." It aims, also, to stimulate students to develop hobbies as a matter of personal interest and of personality development.

ACTIVITIES POINT SYSTEM

Offices held by the students are valued in points. No student may during the year hold offices amounting to more than 20 points. A student who fails in two subjects during any semester must resign all offices coming under the point system.

ANDERSON COLLEGE SONGS

Anderson College Girls

Greetings we bring to you
As now we sing to you,
Anderson College girls.

Love in our hearts for you,
We give our best to you,
Anderson College girls.

You drive the clouds away,
Bring sunshine with the day,
Anderson College girls.

Now life's a merry song,
All because you came along,
Anderson College girls.

Refrain:

Anderson College girls
Anderson College girls
Sweetest girls in all the world
We love you every one.
Bright with your sunny smile
You all the hours beguile;
Here's a kiss and here's a wish for every one.

—Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Sr.

October

The months are met with their crownlets 'on,
As Julius Caesar crown'd them;
With slaves, the gentlemen thirty-one,
And the ladies thirty, round them.
But who shall be monarch of all, you ask;
Go ask of the boys and maidens,
For that is the lads' and the lassies' task,
And they choose him afar in cadence.

Chorus:

October, October!
March to the dull and sober!
The suns of May for the children's play,
But give to us October,
October, October!

That Good Old Anderson Spirit

Give me that good old Anderson spirit,
Give me that good old Anderson spirit,
Give me that good old Anderson spirit,

It's the best that can be had.

Made Miss Denmark our President,
Made Miss Denmark our President,
Made Miss Denmark our President,
And it'll do the same for me.

It got style for Miss Paschal,
It got style for Miss Paschal,
It got style for Miss Paschal,
And it'll get the same for me.

It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
It made Mr. von Hasseln sprightly,
And it'll do the same for me.

Smiles

There are smiles from Indiana,
There are smiles from Idaho,
There are smiles from Maine to California,
There are smiles from the north to Mexico,
There are smiles all over this great nation,
Wheresoever may your footsteps fall;
But the smiles that come from Anderson College
Are the smiles that are best of all!

Spirit of B. S. U.

In our halls of learning Christ you did instill,
With His truth eternal you our hearts did fill.
Now we're ever eager goodly works to do;
In your service use us, Spirit of B. S. U.

In the midst of classes Christ we shall proclaim,
Lift our fellow students in the Saviour's name;
To the church we'll bind them, show them life
anew,
With the strength you give us, Spirit of B. S. U.

We are all one body, tho' from east and west,
We would serve the Master, put us to the test.
Thus with hearts united, sin we shall subdue
With His love unfailing, Spirit of B. S. U.

Greetings to Anderson Freshmen

It's a fine thing to get together,
It's the right way to start.
It's a fine thing for us to be here
With gladness in each heart.
Greetings, you Anderson Freshmen!
Welcome from far and near!
It's a fine, fine thing to get together,
And we're glad you're here!

Crook Song

Once there was a Sophomore Class,
Sophomore Class, Sophomore Class,
Once there was a Sophomore Class,
Who had a crook.
They had them a crook, yes,
They had them a crook, you bet,
Once there was a Sophomore Class,
Who had a crook.

Found a little hiding place,
Hiding place, hiding place,
Found a little hiding place,
To put that crook.
They hid it for keeps, yes,
They hid it for keeps, you bet,
Found a little hiding place,
To put that crook.

Then the little Freshman Class,
Freshman Class, Freshman Class,
Then the little Freshman Class,
Looked for that crook.
They searched high and low, yes,
They searched high and low, you bet,

Then the little Freshman Class,
Looked for that crook.
Poor little Freshman Class,
Freshman Class, Freshman Class,
Poor little Freshman Class,
Wept for that crook.
They wept and they wailed, yes,
They wept and they wailed, you bet,
Poor little Freshman Class
Wept for that crook.

Then upon Commencement Day,
Commencement Day, Commencement Day,
Then upon Commencement Day,
Who had that crook?
Why who but the Sophomores,
Why who but the Sophomores,
Then upon Commencement Day,
Who had that crook?????

CollegiAnnes' Hymn

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all—the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble, for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.

I would be prayerful thro' each busy moment;
I would be constantly in touch with God;
I would be tuned to hear the slightest whisper;
I would have faith to keep the path Christ trod.

Danes' Hymn

He who is noble, kind in thought and action,
Faithful to duty, pure, and single hearted,
Needs not a weapon, needs not man to guard him,
Virtue defends him.

What though he wander o'er the burning desert?
What though he journey o'er unfriendly mountain?
Sleeping or waking, though by death surrounded,
Virtue defends him.

SERVICE SONGS

Marine Hymn

From the halls of Montezuma
To the shores of Tripoli
We fight our country's battles
On the land as on the sea.
First to fight for right and freedom
And to keep our honor clean,
We are proud to claim the title of
The United States Marines!

Our flags unfurled to every breeze
From dawn to setting sun,
We have fought in every clime and place
Where we could take a gun.
In the snow of far-off northern lands
And in sunny tropic scenes
You will find us always on the job,
The United States Marines!

Here's health to you and to our corps
Which we are proud to serve.
In many a strife we've fought for life
And never lost our nerve.
If the Army and the Navy
Ever look on heaven's scenes,
They will find the streets are guarded by
The United States Marines!

Caisson Song

Over hill, over dale, we have hit the dusty trail,
And those caissons go rolling along.
"Counter march! Right about!" hear those wagon
soldiers shout,
While those caissons go rolling along.
For it's "Hi! Hi! Hee!" in the Field Artillery,
Call off your numbers loud and strong.
And where e'er we go you will always know
That those caissons are rolling along.

Spirit of the Army Air Corps

Into the air, Army Air Corps,
Give 'er the gun, pilots true.
Into the air, Army Air Corps,
Keep your nose up in the blue.
When you hear our motors humming
And our steel props start to whine,
You can bet the Army Air Corps
Is along the fighting line!

We have our hand on the throttle
As we wait for the nod,
We're gonna meet them half-way, boys.
And we'll beat them to the sod.
But when our last fight is over
And we meet our fighting boss,
You can bet the air is clear, boys,
From Orion to the cross.

Army Air Corps

Off we go into the wild blue yonder
Climbing high into the sun.
Here they come—zooming to meet our thunder
At 'em boys—give her the gun.
Down we dive, shooting our flame from under -
Off with one terrible roar.
We live in fame or go down in flame
For nothing can stop the Army Air Corps!

Here's a toast to the host of men who love the vastness of the skies.
To a friend we will send a message of his brother
men who fly.
We drink to those who gave their all of old,
And down we roar to score the rainbow's pot of gold.
Here's a toast to the host of men we boast
The Army Air Corps!

Off we go into the wild sky yonder;
Keep the wings level and true.
'f you live to be a gray-haired wonder,
Keep the nose up in the blue.
Flying men guarding our nation's border,
We'll be there—followed by more;
In echelon we carry on,
For nothing can stop the Army Air Corps!!

Anchors Aweigh

Anchors aweigh, my boys, Anchors, aweigh.
Farewell to college joys we sail at break of day-ay-ay-ay
To our last night on shore drink to the foam
Until we meet once more, here's wishing you a happy voyage home!

GRACE AT MEALS

Father, we thank Thee for the food we eat;
We thank Thee for this fellowship sweet;
We thank Thee for mem'ries here that cling;
We thank Thee, Lord, for everything.
